

Bylaws to Policy on Conflict of Interest in Medical Research Japanese Society of Nuclear Medicine

Article 2: Publications in the Official Bulletin of JSNM

(Scope of Disclosure)

COI that authors are obligated to disclose are matters specified in the section 4 “Matters Requiring Disclosure” of the Policy.

(At the Time of Submission)^[1]_[SEP]

Authors who submit their manuscript to Annals of Nuclear Medicine or KAKU IGAKU [Japanese Journal of Nuclear Medicine (Jpn J Nucl Med)] are required to indicate at the time of submission any potential COI by means of " Conflict of Interest Self-Declaration Form for Authors" (Supplementary Form 2) or similar document from all authors (including non-members), and " Conflict of Interest Self-Declaration Form for Authors" (Form 2) or similar document from the corresponding authors disclosing any COI within the past three-year period. Any company or organization with COI related to the content of the presentation should be acknowledged including company or organization name, funds received, and services, etc. in the Footnote of the title page or Acknowledgments of the article. In cases where no regulated COI exists, a statement such as “No potential conflicts of interest were disclosed” should be inserted in this space. With regard to COI to be clearly indicated at the time of submission, the authors are required to disclose matters as described in the section 4 of “Matters Requiring Disclosure.” The monetary amount exceeding which self-declaration is required shall be the same as described in Article 1 of the Bylaws. Disclosure is required for matters pertaining to the three-year period preceding the date of manuscript submission. Authors shall submit self-declaration forms or equivalent documents to disclose any COI pertinent to publications in the journals of JSNM-related societies. The submitted Form 2 will be stored for three years after publication of the paper.
